B. Audibert keeps the nicest beer in town.

Which was it Bacon or Shakespear.

The authorship of the dramatic productions tribute to the last of the above named is agitation literary circles to the very centre, but effects the practical purpose far less than the momentous question, how to regain or preserve health, that essential of bodily and mental activity, business success and the "pursuit of happiness." We can throw far more light on this subject than the most profound Shakespearean can on the question first propounded. If the system is depleted, the nerves shaky; if indigestion or constipation bothers one at times, or constantly; if the skin is yellow and tongue furred as in biliousness; if there are promontory twinges of on-coming rheumatism of neuralgia; if the kidneys are inactive—use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest recuperant of an age prolific in beneficial and successful remedies. Remember, if malaria threatens or afflicts, that it neutralizes the poison and fortifies the system.

For nice and cool beer, go at B. Audibert's.

Notice.

My former patrons are hereby notified that I will be in St. Martinville December the 1st and 2nd. Those indebted to me will please settle all accounts. Can be found at the Drugstore of A. Labbe, & Son.
